

CATHERINE MCGRATH JUST IN CASE

Love takes time
You don't fall in it overnight
I know we just met
And you don't really know me yet

But my heart is beating fast
Going crazy
Racing in my chest
I'm thinking maybe

Just in case you probably kiss me
Probably whisper in my ear
Probably hold me like you need me
'Fore the moment disappears
Might end up in heartbreak
Might not be the real thing
But it could be
So you should probably kiss me just in case

It's hard to know
If we should take it fast or roll real slow
And we could hold back
But baby, what's the fun in that?

When my heart is beating fast
Going crazy
When you look at me like that
I start thinking maybe

Just in case you probably kiss me

Probably whisper in my ear
Probably hold me like you need me
'Fore the moment disappears
Might end up in heartbreak
Might not be the real thing
But it could be
So you should probably kiss me just in case
Yeah, just in case

Just in case you're my Prince Charming
Just in case dreams do come true
Just in case tonight's a fairytale
This one ends with you
Just in case this is a happy ever after in the making
Know it's probably not
But hey, baby, I'm just saying

Just in case you probably kiss me
Probably whisper in my ear
Probably hold me like you need me
'Fore the moment disappears
Might end up in heartbreak
Might not be the real thing
But it could be
So you should probably kiss me just in case
Just in case
Oh, oh, oh
Just in case
